Law firm giving away bike helmets Saturday in Jonesboro

From Staff Reports May 17, 2019

JONESBORO – Joseph M. Todd, PC will be giving away free bicycle helmets to any child on Saturday, May 18 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in front of Heritage Bank in Jonesboro.

The bank is located at 101 N. Main St. in Jonesboro.

Helmets will be available on a first-come, first- served basis and children must be present to receive a helmet, to ensure a proper fit. The owners of Bobby's Bike Repair & Sales will be on hand to fit each child.

There is no cost involved with receiving the helmet. Parents can RSVP by visiting www.freekidshelmetsatl.com.

Attorney Jillian Todd and her father, attorney Joseph Todd, the owners of the Jonesboro law firm, said they have seen the devastation that traumatic brain injuries can have on a child and their families.

“We want to do everything we can to keep kids safe this summer, so we hope that providing Atlanta kids with bicycle helmets will encourage them to ride safe,” Jillian Todd said. “If even one child is protected, the effort is more than worth it.”
