Veterans Hold Special Place For Todd Law All Year Long

Veterans Day is especially meaningful for Joseph M. Todd, PC since our firm's founder, Joseph Todd, was named after a very special Veteran. Joseph Tofinchio, Joe Todd's uncle, served in the U.S. Army and died on or about June 8, 1944, on Utah Beach in Normandy, France. He was killed in action way too young, but we will never stop honoring his life, courage, and dedication.

We are also grateful to the many Veterans among our clients and colleagues who have served our great country, including Clayton County Magistrate Judges William W. West (Army) and Hugh G. Cooper (Army); Solicitor General Charles Brooks (ROTC); clients Glenn Weimer (Army), Cassandra Barnes (Navy), and James Byrom (Army); and colleague Rick Knight (Army). We are eternally grateful for your service!

Clayton County is in good hands with a newly appointed District Attorney and Solicitor General. Joe and Jillian travelled to the Georgia State Capitol for the swearing in of Clayton County's new District Attorney, Tasha Mosley, and Solicitor General, Charles Brooks, by the Honorable Georgia Governor, Brian Kemp. We would also like to congratulate Henry County's Honorable Pandora Palmer on her appointment to State Court Judge. We are lucky to have such experienced leaders representing Jonesboro and the surrounding areas!

- 2 cups shredded, leftover turkey
- One 12-pack pull-apart dinner rolls (like King's Hawaiian)

- ½ cup grated parmesan cheese, divided
- ¼ cup shredded provolone cheese
- 3 Tablespoons olive oil, divided

Raving Fan of the Month

This is why we offer free consultations! Sometimes you just need a little advice to ease the stress for it all to work out. We are glad that everything turned out okay for Terri, even though she didn't need to hire us!

Awesome, Awesome, Awesome!

I've had the most Amazing experience with this Law Firm. Jillian M. Todd, was so accommodating with my work schedule she made an exception to see me after hours, I called her on Wednesday and she scheduled an appointment for that Friday, I had to be in court that following Monday. I was so nervous about my Court Date, but she showed so much compassion, and provided me with solid information to prepare for my Court Date. I followed her suggestions, and everything worked out in my favor. I'm so grateful. Thanks Again, Jillian M. Todd, Sincerely, Terri.
