Halloween Was All Treats at the Office

Todd Law had a spooktacular Halloween!

Lily was all dressed up as a Baby Cow and the sweet little calf attended her first Todd Law Halloween party, even bringing along her dad, Daniel the Farmer, to round out the family costume theme Old McDonald with mom, Attorney Jillian Todd.

Paralegal Joyce won the costume contest with another clever outfit by dressing as a scarecrow (remember her hilarious “deviled egg” costume two years ago?!) and we had a ball trick-or-treating in the office with our little visitor.

Riding With Family to Holiday Gatherings? Know What To Do If An Accident Happens

Now that it is safe once again for families and friends to gather, there will be many more cars on the roads this holiday season. It's also likely that family members from different households will ride together to and from family events to offset the high cost of gas. More traffic on the roads means an increased risk of an accident and it is important to remember that if you are injured as a passenger in a car, you are often entitled to have your medical bills paid for by the insurance company regardless of who caused the accident.

If you are injured while riding in someone else's car, it can be difficult to determine which insurance company to contact about your medical bills and lost wages, and you will have to obtain the police report, your medical records, the corresponding bills, and lost wage statements proving time missed from work because of the accident. This can be a daunting task, which is why we always encourage family members to contact Todd Law so we can help you with the entire process. The attorneys in our office will provide a full case evaluation – for free – and explain exactly how we can help.

OUT & ABOUT IN CLAYTON COUNTY

It was a scary good time at the Atlanta Car Club Community's Annual Trunk or Treat in Morrow! The rain didn't stop us from having fun decorating our trunk and passing out treats. It was such a great turn out that we even ran out of candy! Todd Law would like to extend a huge thank you to Clayton County Solicitor General Charles Brooks and the ACC for inviting us to participate; we had a great time!
